'Universal affidavit' format to simplify access to public services: Govt

Press Trust of India
Ahmedabad, June 1

THE GUJARAT government on Monday announced a standardised "universal affidavit" format for availing public services across the state where no specific affidavit format is prescribed under law or rules.

The decision was taken by the state Law Department as part of the government's efforts to simplify and streamline civil services under the leadership of Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel, an official release said.

"Citizens earlier had to submit different affidavits with varying texts for accessing schemes and services offered by different government departments, leading to inconvenience, delays and procedural complexities. With the introduction of the universal affidavit, the hassle of different affidavits is over," it said.

The same format will now be valid across Gujarat in cases where an affidavit is legally required but no specific format has been prescribed, the release said.

The new format will be mandatorily accepted by all government offices, authorities, and service centres functioning at district, taluka, rural and urban levels, and it will also be implemented on Digital Gujarat portal and at public service centres to facilitate online applicants, the release said.

The state government clarified that services for which there is no legal requirement to submit an affidavit will continue to follow the existing self-declaration process as per the General Administration Department's resolution, and affidavits will not be mandatory in such cases.

The Law Department has prepared the official format in both Gujarati and English for the convenience of citizens, the release added.

Lion deaths in Gir: Bhavnagar forest personnel fully alert, no symptoms found locally, says DCF

Press Trust of India
Bhavnagar, June 1

FOREST PERSONNEL in Gujarat's Bhavnagar district have intensified surveillance, deworming and de-ticking measures for Asiatic lions as a precaution following the death of eight cubs due to suspected Babesia infection in the Gir forest region, a senior official said on Monday.

Deputy Conservator of Forests (Bhavnagar) Yogesh Desai said no symptoms linked to the suspected infection have been found among lions in the district so far.

Eight lions have died in Amreli and Gir Somnath districts due to suspected Babesia infection, a tick-borne disease. However, the exact cause of the deaths or disease will be ascertained after reports on their samples come out, as per officials.

"Based on our recent full-moon patrolling, around 50 wild lions were spotted in Bhavangar district's forest area. The 50 lions were checked by our veterinary staff and all are safe. Of these, 19 have been dewormed, de-ticked and given preventive doses. The remaining animals will also be covered within the next 10 days," Desai told mediapersons.

Desai said the department has instructed all field staff to intensify daily foot patrolling and closely monitor the movement and behaviour of lions.

"We are seeking daily well-being reports from field staff and reviewing updates every evening. Special attention is being paid to movement, gait and behavioural changes. If any abnormality is noticed, our veterinary officers will immediately be informed so that rescue and treatment operations can be carried out," he added.

No alarming symptoms have been noticed in Bhavnagar's lion population till now, but the department remains fully prepared to tackle any situation, Desai said.

BID TO 'SELL' SEAT ON LOCAL TRAIN IN SURAT

Court reduces rly porter's jail term: 1 month to 2 days

Kamal Saiyed
Surat, June 1

AN ADDITIONAL sessions court in Surat has reduced the jail sentence of a railway porter who was convicted for placing a cloth towel on a train seat with an intent to 'reserve' it and illegally sell it to another passenger from one month to two days. The court also increased the penalty amount imposed on the porter from Rs 500 to Rs 1,500.

The court's directive came more than six years after the porter, who was earlier convicted and sentenced to a month's imprisonment by the Judicial Magistrate First Class (Railways) court in Surat, filed an appeal.

The Surat Railway Protection Force (RPF) had registered an offence against the porter, Raghu Dayma, 40, a resident of Bharthana area in Surat city, under 145 (C) of the Railway Act. He was later arrested and released on bail. The JMFC court (Railways), Surat, convicted Dayma and sentenced him to imprisonment of a month on March 7, 2020.

Dayma, through his lawyer M R Pande, filed an appeal with Surat District Sessions Court against the JMFC court order on March 9 the same year.

The case proceedings were carried out in the court of additional sessions judge S P Mehta, and Assistant Public Prosecutor (APP) Bharat Chavda pressed charges against Dayma.

After hearing the arguments from both sides, the court reduced Dayma's sentence period and the fine amount.

In the order, issued recently, the court observed, "It appears that while passing the conviction order, the JMFC court has taken all necessary care and satisfied that the accused has agreed to plead guilty voluntarily, out of free will, without any influence or coercion from any corner....Hence, the conviction of the accused is hereby upheld. However, considering the proportion of sentence, it appears that the accused has been sentenced to undergo imprisonment for 30 days and to pay a fine of Rs 500 for the offences punishable under Section 145(c) of the Railways Act. It would be apt to reproduce here Section 145(c) of the Railways Act."

The court observed, "Keeping in view the impugned order, that the JMFC court, considering the list of criminal case history of the accused, which was produced by the RPF inspector, has passed order sentencing the accused for imprisonment of 30 days and imposed fine of Rs 500. The prosecution had not submitted such certified copies of the conviction order before the trial court. Hence, the observation of the trial court is not proper and the interference to the extent of proportionment of imprisonment is warranted. Hence, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the penal provision and also considering the provisions of Section 298 of the CrPC, the imprisonment for two days would suffice..."

APP Chavda told The Indian Express on Monday, "We are going through the order and have not yet decided what further action we will take."

Defence lawyer Pande said, "We are satisfied with the additional sessions court's order. The applicant (Dayma) remained in jail for nearly two days after the JMFC court convicted him. Later, he was granted bail. Now with the latest court order, he does not have to go to jail."

માનનીય પ્રધાનમંત્રી નરેન્દ્ર મોદીના દૂરદર્શી નેતૃત્વ હેઠળ વ્યૂહાત્મક આર્થિક ભાગીદારીના એક નવા યુગની શરૂઆત થઈ : વિકસિત ભારત @૨૦૪૭ માટે એક નવો ટ્રેડ કોરિડોર : CEPA ઓમાનમાં ભારતના ૯૯.૩૮ ટકા નિકાસ માટે ઝીરો-ડ્યુટી એક્સેસ મળશે : ઓમાન સાથે વ્યાપક દ્વિપક્ષીય વેપાર કરાર સુરક્ષિત કરનાર અમેરિકા પછી ભારત માત્ર બીજો દેશ બન્યો

આજે, ભારત-ઓમાન કોમ્પ્રેહેન્સિવ ઇકોનોમિક પાર્ટનરશિપ એગ્રીમેન્ટ (CEPA) અમલમાં આવ્યો છે જે દ્વિપક્ષીય આર્થિક સંબંધોમાં એક નિર્ણાયક સીમાચિહ્નરૂપ છે અને બંને દેશો વચ્ચે વ્યૂહાત્મક વેપાર અને રોકાણ સહયોગમાં એક પરિવર્તનકારી નવો અધ્યાય શરૂ કરે છે.
